

The Rick Hansen Accessibility Certification Program - A Call to Action

Tuesday, March 6, Westin Hotel Ottawa

The Rick Hansen Foundation Accessibility Certification program is a LEED or BOMA BEST style rating system to measure the accessibility of buildings/sites and to promote adoption of Universal Design principles.

It is the first program of its kind to package up a way to objectively measure the level of meaningful access of buildings, professionally train individuals to become accredited accessibility assessors, and formally recognize an organization's commitment to accessibility.

Our special guest will be Brad Brohman, Vice President Government Relations of the Rick Hansen Foundation.

Come and hear more and find out how you can be a leader while meeting social, regulatory and compliance goals.
