Ready, set, go: Proposed Ontario Employment and Labour Law Changes

Ontario's employment and labour laws are undergoing the most sweeping reform in the last decade.

Owners and managers of commercial buildings and service providers will be affected by the numerous changes, including drastic hikes in minimum wage, the requirement of wage parity between full-time and part-time employees, new work scheduling restrictions, and the reversal of existing union successorship rules in building services contract re-tendering situations.

Our expert will discuss these and numerous other changes and what your organization can do to keep pace with the changing legal requirements.

Our Expert:

Presented by Bonny Mak, Partner with Fasken Martineau, specializing in employer-side labour, employment and human rights law. She is well versed in the upcoming changes that will affect BOMA members, their suppliers and the Ontario labour force.
