

PART OF THE
BOMA OTTAWA LUNCH SERIES

Guest Speaker
Mary W. Rowe, President & CEO,
Canadian Urban Institute

A leading urban advocate and civil society trailblazer who has worked in cities and with communities across Canada and the United States.

Mary was President of the Canadian platform Ideas That Matter, a convening and publishing program based on the work of renowned urbanist Jane Jacobs. She has worked in New Orleans and New York City serving as Executive VP of the Municipal Art Society, one of America's oldest civic advocacy organizations focused on the built environment.

Mary is a frequent contributor to national and international city-building programs, a frequent media commentator and writer.

Her work includes a series of virtual residencies in cities across Canada, to learn from on-the-ground practitioners about what's working and what's not

Mary is also the facilitator of BiCEP—an alliance of senior executives leading some of Canada's most significant urban regions, for which CUI is the secretariat.
